Hold It Right There, Mister Preacher!: An Introspective Look at What Passes for Biblical Discourse - Current Edition (Paperback)

By B Richard Nicholson

Abeng Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . THERE HAS ALWAYS been concern among God's people over whether their fellow believers are walking the talk. Rarely is the focus turned to the talk itself and just how walkable it is. Paul, in I Corinthians 1, refers to the foolishness of preaching. This was an obvious quip at the scoffing Greeks and others with whom he was in confrontation from time to time, who held that disdainful view of the gospel. For, he explains, the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness. He obviously didn't think it to be so, nor was he enjoining believers to think it so or make it so. So it's hardly likely that with that declaration he was in any way giving the nod to the preaching of foolishness. Yet the sarcasm of the apostle's phrase has clearly been lost on us as we continue to make our religion the butt of comedy, then turn around and blame the comedians. Flip through your tv family channels on a Sunday morning and observe the power accorded by the business...
