D: One of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, Who Died on the Ninth of September, Eighteen Hundred and Six, in the Sixty-First Year of His Age And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? The loss of men, truly great, has ever been considered, in all countries, a publick calamity. When such men fall, country is called to mourn! An occasion of this kind drew from the pious king David the words before us. Abner, the son of Ner, had been commander in chief of the armies of Saul; a man of an enlarged mind, possessing, in a high degree, the talents of a great military commander; strongly attached to the interests of his country, and faithful to his sovereign.
