Xulon Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Man what a gifted poet you are! I love your poems.and the way you write in your face with power, beauty, and sensitivity. Some of them just explode in my mind. You know words and you know how to make them, stand up an salute. Steve Brown - Author, Professor - Reformed Theological Seminary, Orlando, FL, and Teacher. Alleluia! In this new collection of poems, Ron Cervero writes about Darkness being so heavy it tears his mind and flesh into pieces. Well.Mr. Cervero s soul and poetry not only have seen the light, but also buried all darkness and now risen to the highest level of spiritual writing with this set of Contemporary Christian Poetry. I say he s is a gift and inspiration to the world! A Blessing in Flames will lift your spirit to Heaven; it will take you closer to God. Jaime Ferreyros - Miami, FL The author Ron Cervero has touched my heart and soul with his expressive and profound book of poetry. Emotionally stimulating bringing one to study his, at times mysterious work, one is left with wanting more, wanting to read between the lines of the personal thoughts within this author s soul. Upon reading Mr. Cervero, I see the author being on the outside, learning to look in. His deep love of his God is moving, his faith unshakable, his love something to be connected with. In his poem Box of Hope which I believe is the essence of this writer, is humbling giving insight to the mainframe of the poet. And finally, the poem Love , strikingly moving reveals to all that love is our answer to most...
