There's a war being fought on the streets of Chicago between an organized crime syndicate and a feline shifter pride resolute to stop them. Mason and Jacob Williams are Leopard shifters in the Black Ridge pride, fighting to protect the city they call home and avenge the loss of two of their own. The shifters are sent to look for a woman their Alpha believes can help them. Thinking she's in danger, they rush in to rescue her only to discover that Violet Riccitelli is not a woman in need of any assistance. While she's kicking the ass of three potential attackers, they recognize her as their mate, the one they must protect above all else. Violet is known to the people of Chicago as someone they can rely on to help when things get bad. But Violet sees herself as a woman out for justice against the man who took everything from her twelve years ago. Can Mason and Jacob convince their mate that a future with them is worth risking everything, or will Violet's need to see justice served end their chance before it's begun?
