Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The History of the First Church and Society in Raynham: In Raynham, in Two Discourses, Delivered Jan, 1, 1832, Being Little More Than a Century Since the Church Was Constituted The sun and the golden seasons, which in other climes had caused the fields to wave with abundant harvests, had here rolled, for centuries, over a virgin soil. The whole country seemed a wild vacuum waiting to be filled with the labors of industry, the achievements of the arts, and the blessings of religion. But all this waste as to natural advantages was nothing compared with the waste of intellect. No traces were to be found that the Indian tribes during the many centuries they had possessed New England, had made any advance toward civilization, or any of the useful arts. Though naturally endowed with intellects equal to that of the white man, their fondness for savage life seemed invincible. In July 1621, Edward Winslow and Stephen Hopkins were sent by the Governor of Plymouth to explore this part of the country, to visit Massasoit...
