Excerpt from Illinois Hazardous Waste Research and Information Center Annual Report: July 1, 1988-June 30, 1989 It is clear that a strong waste reduction program must deal with all wastes, be multimedia (involve air, soil, and water), and be supported by strong research, information, and technical assistance programs. In addition, for states to ensure future capacity for waste treatment, storage, and disposal they must encourage industry to adopt active waste reduction programs. Ultimately these programs will lead to more efficient and competitive industries and better use of our resources.
