FELICIA S NOSE (PAPERBACK)

Madhat Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Nick Patterson (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Annotator s Note by Tom Bradley At the end of her life, Carol Novack was doing what must eventually be done by everyone who s strong enough: she was squarely facing certain aspects of herself, her family, and her heritage that were not precisely excruciating, but, as she said, were interesting and worthy of painstaking examination. Even before the cancer diagnosis, she was tallying up her life s debits and credits, in particular the wheels and deals with Muter. The penultimate chapter of Felicia s Nose is a confrontation between the eponymous heroine and her female parent, ending with something like a Pandora s box being stashed under a bed. It s unopened, and bursting with what we all know is inside. Being a writer, Carol s method of self-excavation was literary, and she recruited my help, two shovels being better than one. She wanted me to do to her what I did to Kane X. Faucher in Epigonesia: to dig under her characters and situations, to dissect her names, numbers, references, to turn her allusions, both deliberate and unconscious, inside out. Carol wanted a running commentary that furtively pursued she cringed at the word psychoanalytical strategies. She envisaged an infestation of ten-point type skittering along the bottom of her novel like army ants underfoot. We need a literal...
