iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tom and Paul sat their speechless. The conversation over the past 45 minutes had put a totally different twist to everything they had ever conceived of when talking to the old riverman. They had heard a lot of stories all week, but this one caught them by complete surprise. Join brothers Tom and Paul Johnson for a cruise with their parents down the Mississippi, where their expectations change with each bend of the river. The Mississippi Queen is one of the historic paddle-wheelers operated by the Delta Queens Paddleboat Company. Both Tom and Paul are concerned because it doesn t have some of the exciting things that other commercial cruise ships have, such as a huge swimming pool, theater, and gym. But worst of all, most of the travelers are retirees that want peace and quiet while traveling down the river. Just when they become convinced that they re going to have to entertain themselves all week, Tom and Paul meet Josh Higgins, an old-time riverboat captain, whose stories are more than enough to keep them entertained. Experience the past along with the present as these adventurous brothers and their parents explore the real tales of the river.
