Stonelight Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 244 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Dark Side of Genius is Lucian's Dark Collection from his Poetry Tour, Devils Love Letters, Blood Magic Stir, combined with a new series of poems called the Dark Side of Genius. His dark master piece includes two short stories, The Ling Low and End of Illusion. Lucian has been considered to be the new Edgar Allan Poe of 21st century with a poetic style of King David, Alfred Hitchcock, Oscar Wilde, Sylvia Plath, Jack Kerouac, and Wendell Berry. There's a story told of Lucian in the novel Secret of the Blood (SECRETOTHEBLOOD.COM) Lucian is a prime suspect for 6 mysterious deaths that detective Van Bibber calls the Death of Twilight. If you've never heard of Lucian, here's what others have said about him from his previous writings . . . Something wicked sweet this way comes! Out of the dark ages we received Poe. Now we have Lucian Wilde! This book is a must have for any and all lovers of the dark poetry and romantic mystery. You'll never want to put it down. I can't wait for The Novel Secret of the Blood --Chandra Kolobus Lynch I recommend Blood Magic Stir wholeheartedly. It's beautifully written and very compelling. Lucian is a wonderful writer and once Bitten by him you will never be the same! ----- Loretta Kirtman Terry Lucian Wilde is captivating, romantic, and visual. There are not that many writers who can captivate me with just their poetry, but LW manages to make me feel like I am being swept away on his words alone. Beautiful!! ----- Laura M. McCormick I love to read the raw poems of Lucian Wilde. I sit with my cup of tea and open the book, just as the sun is about...
