While reading #SilenceHerNoMore you will see how I evolved from being a victim to a victor! I probably should ve Titled this book Connie to Constance. As a adolescent I made plenty of mistakes; I ve come to realize life is full of adventure and journeys so I m constantly learning, growing and even making mistakes. Life can become very difficult (if your experiencing identity issues and aren t seeking help) those issues will slow the process of finding your purpose down. However, through those trials tribulation and the highs and lows of life you gain wisdom which will ultimately help you through life; or at least that what it s meant to do. As you walk through the journey of #SilenceHerNoMore many of you will be able to Identify with many of the topics I talk about through out the book. For example growing up in a physical abusive home, suicide, being forced to have an abortion, being raped, becoming a...
