America Star Books, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Distinctively, this book places the phenomena of Pentecost in their broad biblical context, pointing up their importance for evangelism and world missions. Rachinski evaluates the quest for a post-regeneration experience called the baptism in the Holy Spirit. Then chapters on the promise of the Father and its fulfillment on the day of the Jewish feast of Pentecost, lead to asking the question of Acts 2:12, What does this mean? The potency of Pentecost is not glossolalia! Pentecost initiates the Spirit-empowered bringing of good news to the nations of the world in their own languages rather than a message of ecstatic tongue speaking for the faithful. This extensive study has produced a needed focus on the significance of Pentecost in the great sweep of a biblical history of redemption from the fall of men and women to the return of the Savior and Lord of all. --Gordon R. Lewis, Ph.D., Sr. Professor of Theology and Philosophy, Denver Seminary.
