As God inspired the writing of this book I was meditating on my personal life and on where I was over twenty something years ago as I began my Christian journey. I thought about where God have brought me from to where I now stand boldly in faith! I thought about how true the word of God is and how I put it through the test by practical application throughout the years! I thought about when I started the study of the scriptures in the book of Proverbs and how in the ending of that study I confessed to God how big of a fool I myself had been, for therein it declare how the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge but fools despise wisdom and instruction. I realized that it was because of that very reason I myself had suffered many adversities in my life! I was then lead to the words of James the brother of Jesus where he used as a figure of speech, a glass or mirror that an individual behold ones natural face in and go on ones way immediately forgetting ones reflection that the glass revealed of ones self. He used this speech to highly magnify the word of God that it is like a glass that one look into which give the spiritual reflection of the one looking into it. The difference being that Gods word takes one deeper than the natural into ones inner most being. It being quick and powerful sharper than any double edged sword piercing even to the dividing asunder of the soul and spirit the joints and the marrow and is a discerner of the...
