Xulon Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In America a large percentage of every race of people seem to improve their living standards or conditions, find fulfillment of their dreams except for one race of people. How is that possible? Is it their destiny? Is it a preplanned plot by the framers of the constitution of this nation to allow or enforce this? Is it a demonically influenced scheme that would hinder this achievement? The purpose of this book is not to criticize or to condone this condition, but to serve as an awakening call that will cause this race of people that has been lulled or serenaded to a state of nonchalance, irresponsibility, slothfulness, and low self-esteem. This present condition seems to be contagious because it continues to grow worse with each succeeding generation. Perhaps this book will stimulate a desire to motivate this race of people to rise up and better themselves by using their God given abilities. Leon Hardnett graduated from West High School in Jackson, Louisiana, and Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He earned a B.S. degree in Electronics Technology. In January of 1979, he married Anna Williams Hardnett and was blessed with three sons: Theron, Aaron, and Joel. Leon along with Anna L. Woodard, Professor of English at Southern University and several other members of the drama team at Church Point Ministries, co-authored and portrayed a character in three musical dramas: Who Do I Turn To When I m All Alone?, It s A Summer Thing, and The Black Prodigal Father. Leon s first two books of poetry, Treasures from the Source and God s Little Children were published in 2001 and 2006 respectively and his most recent book of poetry, Running...
