By Shayla Black, Lexi Blake

Black Oak Books, LLC, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A broken woman. Alea Binte al Mussad, Princess of Bezakistan, was abducted from her university, mentally tortured and forced to witness the worst of humanity. She was rescued, but not before fear and her shattered soul made her retreat into herself. Two years later, she s living behind the palace s locked gates and the walls she s built surrounding her heart. Alea is comforted by the joyous family around her, but inside feels so alone—except when she s with the steady trio of guards who relentlessly keep her safe. And tempt her with a passion she isn t sure she ll survive. Three stalwart warriors determined to claim her. Dane Mitchell, Cooper Evans, and Landon Nix wanted Alea from the moment they laid eyes on her. Held back by their duty and her fragility, they worship the Princess from afar, determined to claim her if the chance ever comes. When Alea learns that someone may still be hunting her, she plots to escape both danger and her guards simmering, overwhelming passion. Dane, Coop, and Lan aren t about to...
